RUBE MARQUARD EASY FOR REDS

Hit Him Hard in Sixth, With Three Big Runs as Result.

HERZOG

MAKES HOMER

His Four-Base Clout Is Only Run Made by Giants Off Fromme.

New York, May 9 .- The Reds found "Rube" Marquard in the sixth inning to-day, and when the bombardment had ended three of the visitors had crossed the plate. Cincinnati won the last of the series 3 to 1. Herzog's clean home run in the second was the Giants' only run of the game, while Tinker's charges found little hitting. Four pretty pegs to the plate by New York players cut off as many runs from the final count. Fromme's teammates gave him errorless support throughout. The score:

Crowd Watches Racquetters

Tuxedo Park, N. Y. May 9.—A large number of the "upper set" witnessed the opening matches in the annual invitation doubles on the courts of the Tuxedo Tennis and Racquet Club this afternoon. Some of the finest plays of the scason were witnessed in the Wrenn-Larned and Dabney-Niles sets, which the latter won 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Harold H. Hackett and Raymond D. Little easily defeated the team of William J. Clothier and Charles T. Watson, Jr., in two straight sets, 7-5 and 6-1.

The surprise of the day was the defeat of Wrenn and Larned by Dabney and Niles. The courts were in ideal shope, and the weather just cool enough to put zest in the play.

Fournier's Three-Base Clout in Third Practically Decides Game for Sox.

PULLING ENGLE

Youngster Pitches Great Ball for Six Innings, but Gallia Proves Wild.

HURTS

Chicago, May 2.—Jim Scott held the Nationals to six scattered hits to-day, and won 6 to 1. Fournier, who got into the game in the first inning when Borton was hurt, practically decided the game in the third by tripling to right field fence with two men on. Engle pitched good ball, but was taken out in the seventh to make room for a pinch hitter. Gallia, who succeeded him, was wild, and practically gave the Sox three runs. The score:
